

Sumi Studio Chair

Inspired by the fluid movement of ink calligraphy, the Sumi Studio Chair was designed by award-winning designer Apiwat Chitapanya. Its sculptural frame follows a single continuous line, creating a graceful balance between movement and form. Hand-cast in solid brass, the frame is polished and finished by hand to reveal the character and depth of the material. Named the Sumi Studio Chair for its versatility, the design transitions effortlessly between a dining chair, accent chair, office chair, or lounge seating, adapting beautifully to a variety of spaces.
